Knowing the Answers

Think you and your friends have all the answers and want to pocket $400 in proving it?

Without dwelling on it and trivialising the matter, you have an opportunity to display your talents on Saturday night the 8th September at the Clem Jones Centre Sports Club on Stanley Road at Carina.

There is a wonderful chance you and seven of your friends can display your talents as the most knowledgeable people in many facets of human endeavour.

You will certainly be entertained on the night with drinks at club prices and a bistro available for delicious meals opened from 6.00 pm.

And if you are up to it, you could win some beautiful prizes for yourself and your friends during the evening.

So what are you waiting for?

It's a good initiative to support, a local sporting organisation catering for all levels of age and ability, at a convenient venue, with lots of parking and a small entry cost of $80 for a table of eight people.

All you have to do is register before Saturday 25th August at carinatriviabooking@hotmail.com to have an opportunity to establish your prowess in this area.

It would be smart to be there.
