PRESS RELEASE

NEW JUNIOR COACH AT CARINA LEAGUES TRIATHLON CLUB

The Carina Leagues Triathlon Club is pleased to announce the appointment of Anthony Fletcher as Coach for the Junior Triathlon program.

Club President Matthew Curd said “We are very excited to have Anthony on board as Junior Coach. He has a wealth of experience and is very well qualified to create a program which caters for all skill levels and to introduce to children in the Camp Hill/Carina area how much fun the sport of triathlon really is”.

Anthony has been a triathlete for 6 years and a social runner for many more. Anthony's first triathlon was at Bribie Island in 2012 and he has gone on to race all distances including 5 Ironman events. Anthony's role as junior coach will have him focusing on developing the juniors to the best of their ability. His coaching philosophy is one of fostering enjoyment of the sport, developing fitness and skills while having fun in a happy social environment.

The Carina Leagues Triathlon Club is based at the Clem Jones Centre, 56 Zahel Street and has access to the centre's first class facilities; including a heated 50 metre pool; recovery centre with an eight person ice bath; and the Club owned windtrainers and swimming equipment.

Training for both Junior and Adult squads are in full swing. Athletes are training for the first of many Triathlons being held during the 2017/2018 season. Details relating to fees and training programs can be found on our web page at www.carinaleaguestriathlonclub.com.
